Custom goal and action items

As our motto "WE SERVE", if there's a need, there's a Lion to extend service assistance to the less fortunate in the different clubs in our district. We want a legacy project that has great impact in our community. Through our project "Protecting the environment and fighting climate change through reforestation", we actually partnered with the local water district to protect the forest watershed from which spring water is being obtained. As the protector and defender, we signed a MOA to preserve, conserve and nurture the said water shed. We hereby make solemn vow to plant more trees to improve our environment to cushion the impact of climate change and global warming. Through simple ways we are giving service to all residents in our community, to plant many trees as we can.
